

N.Y. Feb. 12/96.

Dear Sir:

The above is a correct impression of a nickel coin which I possess, the date of which is 1869. The other side has no reading on whatsoever. Enclosed please find stamp. Will you kindly inform me by return mail what the value of the coin, is?

By doing so you would oblige yours respy J. Barnett
1949-3 ave
N.Y. City

New York, N.Y.

12
660

Sends partial rubbing
of 5 Cent Nickel coin
+ asks value of coins.

The rubbing is of a pattern
5 cent piece of 1869.
Never issued.

Nominative value.

About 74 cts.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 192

[See original images for coin rubbings.]

[Abstract:] Sends pencil rubbing of 5 cent nickel coin & asks value of coins.

N.Y.

February 12, 1896

Dear Sir: -

The above is a correct impression of a nickel coin which I possess, the date of which is 1869. The other side has no reading on whatsoever. Enclosed please find stamp. Will you kindly inform me by return mail what the value of the coin is? By doing so you would oblige yours respy.

J. Barnet
1949-3 Ave.
N.Y. City

[Enclosed note:]

The rubbing is of a pattern 5 cent piece of 1869. Never issued.

Numismatic value. About 75 cts.